

Mount Sinai

The Mount Sinai Hospital 2021 U.S. News & World Report “BEST HOSPITALS” RANKINGS

For the sixth year in a row, The Mount Sinai Hospital has been listed on the esteemed “Honor Roll” in the U.S. News & World Report “Best Hospitals” rankings. The Hospital ranks No. 17 nationally among the nation’s top 20 hospitals for care excellence.

The Mount Sinai Hospital Ranked in the Top 50 in the Nation in 10 Specialties:

#1 Brookdale Department of Geriatrics and Palliative Medicine
Specialty Rankings

For the 2nd year in a row Geriatrics/Palliative Care is #1

Cancer Moves Up in Rankings

The Tisch Cancer Institute (TCI) has moved up from: 49 → 32

Thanks to the team of award-winning clinicians and researchers whose integrated, collaborative approach to cancer care expertise continues to propel the Institute’s work and has earned us Designated Cancer Center status from the National Cancer Institute.

The Mount Sinai Hospital ranked as “High Performing” in 13 common conditions and procedures:

- Abdominal aortic aneurysm repair
- Aortic valve surgery
- Chronic obstructive pulmonary disease
- Colon cancer surgery
- Diabetes
- Heart attack
- Heart bypass surgery
- Heart failure
- Kidney failure
- Lung cancer surgery
- Pneumonia
- Stroke
- Transcatheter aortic valve replacement